

Art Quilt Sues Minutes for November 9, 2016

Marijane called the meeting to order at 1:00 p.m. She reminded everyone who wished to donate $1 for Karen's continuing use of her classroom to do so.

Scheduled Presentations for the coming year

January—Marilyn Hiestand will demonstrate silk painting.

February—Anne Davies will demonstrate landscape strip quilting.

Peggy St. George graciously volunteered to do a free motion demo on one of the open months -March, April, May, or August. June will be final plans for the quilt show; July is the show.

The Holiday Party will be at Sue Nylander's home on Wednesday, December 7th at 11 a.m. with potluck lunch and gift exchange. The group voted to exchange small scissor cases. Check Pinterest for numerous ideas. The only requirement for the exchange is that the piece is quilted and wrapped anonymously for the exchange. If you would like to make a second, or third, scissor case for sale at the Country Store, please give them to Sherry.

Merrie Jo Shroeder has suggested we link with the SBSQC to get our info out to AQS. All agreed. Marijane/Mary Ann will get the minutes from the past meetings and any other related info to her.

Mary asked those attending if they would consider signing up for a 2 hour demo during the quilt show in July. She will be taking names in January. Please consider sharing your skills and knowledge with our visitors.

Joyce Alford presented f or Show n' Tell

Eighteen members were present.

Meeting was adjourned at 1:20 p.m.

DEMO: Carolyn Abbott demonstrated thread painting. Carolyn patiently took some non-believers and more advocates through the mystery and glory of thread painting. She strongly suggested that continually taking classes whenever possible was essential to learning and maintaining skills. And of course, practice, practice, practice.

We all appreciate Carolyn so willingly sharing her creative knowledge with us all.

A REMINDER!
