Update from our VEEPs...Marilyn and Valley...

The quilt show was great. What talented people. I hope you had time to look at the quilt, Oh Carol, created by the retreat participants this year. Speaking of retreats, the drawing for Kamp Sew A Lot Oct. 23rd-25th will be after the business meeting this month. If you want to go come put your name in the jar and bring your check book in case your name is drawn. If you can't go for the whole three days or if you would like to share a table we are trying to work out how to do that too so that more people can attend. After the drawing we will be asking for a committee to help with meal planning, prep, serving and clean up.

Those attending the St. Andrews Retreat Aug. 21st-25th need to make the final payment of $290 and turn in their ice forms on Aug. 2nd.

NOTE: Consider signing up for next year's St. Andrews Retreat to be held in March. There are already 4 people signed up and 10-12 people are needed to get the chef.

The Studio Tour Sept. 29th just got another studio entered. That gives us about five. The meeting about the studio tour in August has been cancelled. If you are sharing your studio please send Marilyn a short blurb about you and your studio as soon as possible. We will start selling tickets and handing out maps in September. There is still time to share yours. Just let Marilyn know. If you are thinking about being a VP next year, this might be a good time to shadow us for the rest of this year. It has been a busy year but lots of fun.

Your VEEPS Valley Smith and Marilyn Hiestand.

Alison's Mystery Quilt

Update for August – Now we have “rows.....”

Have you guessed the title of the book or its author? Here is a clue: It is a modern sampler quilt that happens in the city.

Check in; leave your guess.

If one of the club library books inspired you in making a quilt you entered in our last quilt show, please let the librarians know. Our library is full of wonderful inspiration and instructions. Did you notice the lettering on Vicki's award-winning quilt? Vicki was inspired by our recently acquired DVD on lettering. Check it out!

Your Librarians,

Vicki and Julie

Education News....

SBSQC Guest Lecture & Trunk Show August 9th

Stan Green will present his quilting perspective and his dynamic quilts. "Of all the art media I've worked in-- photography, watercolor painting, pottery, rug hooking--quilt making has become my passion because it is the one that allows me the most freedom to play with color and texture."

Lunch and a Movie on August 23rd

This is an invitation to join us the fourth Wednesday in August, August 23rd, for another lunch and a movie. Bring your sack lunch & we will watch one of our library's quilting DVD's. Let's meet at 11:30 at the tables in the front of the room & we will project the "movie" on the front wall. We are planning about 45 mins.

Quilting 101 Class with Sandy Foster for beginning or refreshing the basics

Sign-ups have begun...This is a 7 week class with an intro August 30th. (total 8 weeks) There will be 2 classes most of the days, a morning and afternoon session. On business meeting days there will be just the afternoon session so that Sandy and her students can enjoy the business meeting. This would take students through Oct 18th to finish a 9 block wall-hanging. The cost is $100 for the class and includes printing and extras for class.

Community Quilts Presentation:

The Sequim Lavender Growers Assoc. were given a quilt at the July business meeting that will be raffled off at next year's Lavender Festival. Mary Jendrucko accepted the quilt on behalf of the Lavender Festival. Proceeds from the raffle go into a scholarship fund for a local student. The Sequim Lavender Growers Assoc. have partnered with the Sunbonnet Sue Quilt Club for several years and they provide the bus for quilt show visitors. This year's quilt was beautifully made by Betty Cook.

year's Quilt Show Offering!

Ho, Ho, Ho --- Christmas is coming!!!

Are you rested up from our 2017 Quilt show and thinking about your next project? Well here is a suggestion for you ...

Community Quilts is hoping that you will be part this year's Christmas stocking fun. Our goal is to create 200 or so wonderful Christmas stockings for Clallam County children in need. The stockings will be turned over to North Olympic Foster Parents Association (NOFPA) at our Christmas lunch.

A group of Christmas elves has signed on to organize the 2017 stocking event and the fun will start this fall. The 2017 stocking elves are Maryann Ballard, Loretta Bilow, Bonnie Filgo, Gail Mabbutt, Barbara Richardson and Judy Richey.

We already have a supply of pre-cut stockings, stocking patterns and Christmas fabric for your use. In addition, we will be preparing strips out of scraps for use in special Christmas scrappy stockings. The committee will be meeting soon and there will be more information in the September Scraps.

Also remember that we collect toiletries to supply the NOFPA throughout the year. Please save unused toiletries from your trips and put them in the "Santa box" on the information table. NOFPA can especially use tooth brushes and toothpaste – so check with your dentist during your next check-up.

But here's a special invitation/request. We need someone to take on the Stocking Challenge for 2017. We know that there are creative people who can come up with a perfect idea for this year's challenge and are willing to spend some time in October and November to inspire others to participate. The stocking challenge may be the most fun part of our Christmas stocking event. If you need some inspiration, the Committee has the challenge ideas that have been used for the last 7 years. Plus the Christmas quilting magazines are out in the stores for your inspiration.

If you have any questions or ideas, please get in touch with one of the committee members.
