Sue's Scraps

Sunbonnet Sue Quilt Club

August 2018

The President's Words for JULY to Inspire a Welcoming Environment in our Club

BALANCE

For the "good of the whole," in the theory of fairness, for the success of the Club, we need the balance of each member's unique skills, talents, and interests. As President Lyndon Baines Johnson would start a potentially contentious meeting, "Come let us reason together."

CELEBRATE

Our annual Quilt Show is the venue for us to celebrate what we have learned and applied with unique creations. Celebrate your accomplishments! Celebrate the accomplishments of others! Share the Celebration with others outside of our Club!

VOLUNTEERS

The past week, before, during, and after the show, there were many opportunities to be a volunteer. Some went above and beyond, taking on two to three consecutive shifts to fill in empty spots, especially for the last shift on Saturday afternoon. Kudos and a heartfelt gratitude to those special members, and all who volunteered!

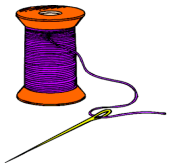
PEBBLES

The "Joy Quilts" work that Loretta Bilow has directed, with help from others, has sent waves across the country, as pebbles ripple on water. Kath Finch, our Vice President from two years ago, shared Loretta's work with her guild in California. They so admired the outreach, they have started making and giving "Joy Quilts" in their area. The work has extended to relatives' guilds in Alaska. Some attending our Quilt Show were so impressed that they took photos to bring the idea back to their guilds. A parent of a recipient shared how the "Joy Quilt" made such a difference to their child. Loretta, you are one person making a huge difference in the world! What a model of one person changing the world! Thank you!

From the Heart and in Your Service, Deb Cooper

Sue's Sew Day and Other Quilting Events

The Next Sue's Sew Day in August 15, 2018.



Dust off your sewing machine and let's get quilting.

This month we'll be serving A Summer's Picnic. Sign up for the lunch is the first two Wednesdays of the month. Cost is still just $5.00.

This is a great time to get some quilting accomplished and chat with other Quilters. I'm always excited to see what other Quilters are working on and getting ideas and encouragment to complete my own quilt or start planning another quilt. Join us on Wednesday August 15th for this months Sue's Sew Day.

A HAND APPLIQUE CLASS

Have you ever wanted to learn to hand appliqué? Or find a tip or two to improve your hand appliqué techniques or add a different style of appliqué to your needle work skills? Wherever you are in your appliqué journey, join us on Wednesday, September 5, 2018, at Karen's Quilt Shop for a Hand Appliqué class taught by Loretta Bilow. The cost is $25.00.
More information on the class and signup will be available at the club meetings.

It's a Mystery!

Brought to you by Norma Herbold, Doris Hartness, and the Education Committee

Remember to bring your Mystery Quilt, whether completed or not, to the club business meeting for Show and Tell. We all want to see each other's color choices and how far we've completed the mystery.

COMMUNITY QUILTS

22 QUILTS WERE PRESENTED WITH FANFARE AND APPRECIATION

Marilyn Williams, Eleanor Geiger, and Carol Prael attended a celebration for new home owners where they received their house keys and a quilt for every family member. Our club received praise and thanks for our gifts.

Peninsula Housing Authority hosted this celebration for eight families who took possession of their brand new homes on July 13th. Through this government self-help program, these families put in 32 hours a week for a year working on their home, and their neighbors' homes, until all eight homes were completed. Most were first time home owners.

SUNBONNET SUE RECEIVES AWARD

Recognized for our ongoing contribution of children's quilts to Head Start, we were named the 2018 Community Partner by Olympic Community Action, Early Childhood Division. Carol Prael attended their annual celebration on June 20th to receive a plaque, a poster from the children that was displayed at the quilt show's Community Quilt table, and several thank you cards from families. The three to six year olds were tickled to take their quilt home at the end of the school year.

Scraps

QUILTS WERE GIVEN TO TWO ORGANIZATIONS TO AID IN THEIR FUND RAISING EFFORTS

Each year we give a lavender themed quilt to the Sequim Lavender Growers Association for their raffle. Proceeds go into a scholarship fund for a local student. Mary Jendrucko happily accepted our quilt and in turn presented the club with an antique Sunbonnet Sue quilt that came to her through her family. She didn't know the age of the quilt or the maker's name. This year's quilt top was provided by Merrie Jo Schroeder and quilted by Alanna Levesque.

New this year was a donation request from Sequim Community Aid for a raffle quilt. This donor based organization is run entirely by volunteers and provides emergency services to assist with rent and utilities. Linda DeMoss, their vice president, received the quilt which was pieced by JayDee Price and quilted by Gloria Mittelstadt.

SAVE THE DATE - SEPTEMBER 26 - INVENTORY REDUCTION SALE

Once again, donations to Community Quilts include items that belong in your sewing room! Watch for more details in the weeks ahead.
