SUNBONNET SUE QUILT CLUB OF THE OLYMPIC PENINSULA
SEQUIM, WASHINGTON
Revised May 2017

I. EDUCATION CLASSES

1. The Education committee chairperson is responsible for establishing and maintaining the budget for classes and lectures in line with the annual budget. The Education chairperson may sign the contracts with countersignature of President for guest instructors on behalf of the club and will inform the board of all contractual commitments. Once contracts are signed, any cancellation or changes to contracts which have a fiscal impact are subject to prior Board approval.
2. The Education committee is responsible for scheduling and coordinating classes offered by the club. These include those taught by guest instructors as well as by member instructors. (The term guest instructor also refers to a guest lecturer.)
3. The cost and fees of classes taught by guest instructors will be determined by the Education committee and will be based solely on the estimate of expenses and the anticipated attendance. If the class expenses are more or are less than the revenue from fees, the difference will be absorbed into the Education budget. Overages will not be returned and shortages will not be assessed.
4. The Education budget is set to cover 100% of lecture expenses. Registration fees are set to cover 100% class expenses. If a guest is both a lecturer and a class instructor, 50% of travel and per diem expenses will be allocated to both the Education budget and the class fee structure.
5. Member instructors may establish their own class fee. Member instructors will bear any expenses and will receive 100% of the fees paid. The club will neither incur profit nor expenses. The Education committee will promote the class, collect registration fees, and pay the member instructor at the completion of the class.
6. Class fees are due when student registers. Class size may be limited by the instructor. When the class size maximum has been reached, a waiting list will be created. Whenever possible, any student who cancels will be replaced by the next person on the waiting list.
7. Members will have the opportunity to sign up for a class during the first two months of signups. If, after the initial two months, a class is not full, a nonmember may register, paying the established fee plus a nonmember surcharge of ten dollars. Members may continue to sign up until the cancellation deadline.
8. Refunds may be given for member-instructor classes up to two weeks prior to the class. No refunds will be issued after that date. The member instructor will be paid the full amount of fees collected according to these rules.
9. Refunds for fees paid for guest instructor classes will not be made unless the class has been canceled or unless a replacement is made from the waiting list.
10. If a guest instructor requires overnight accommodations and is willing to stay in a member's home, the Education committee will identify a member host. A guest instructor will only be housed in a local hotel when it is his/her requirement or unless a member host cannot be identified. The host shall not be reimbursed for hosting a guest instructor except when meals are purchased outside the home during the stay.

11. Members who transport guests may be reimbursed for mileage at the current IRS charitable contribution rate.
12. All instructors are independent contractors and are responsible for their own taxes.

II. EVENTS AND OTHER ORGANIZED CLUB ACTIVITIES

1. The vice presidents are responsible for scheduling and coordinating events offered by the club. These include retreats, field trips, and studio tours. The vice presidents will perform in advisory capacity to assist the Christmas Party Committee.
2. The vice presidents may sign the contracts for events on behalf of the club and will inform the Board of all contractual commitments. Once contracts are signed, any cancellation or changes to contracts which have a fiscal impact are subject to prior Board approval.
3. The cost and fees of events will be determined by the vice presidents and will be based solely on the estimate of expenses and the anticipated attendance. If the event expenses are more or are less than the revenue from fees, the difference will be absorbed into the Special Events budget. Overages will not be returned and shortages will not be assessed.
4. Event fees or deposits are due when members register. When the event size maximum has been reached, a waiting list will be created. Whenever possible, any member who cancels will be replaced by the next person on the waiting list.
5. If, two weeks prior, an event is not full, a nonmember may register, paying the established fee plus a nonmember surcharge of ten dollars.
6. Refunds for fees paid will not be made unless the event has been canceled or unless a replacement is made from the waiting list.
