

May 9, 2018, General Meeting Minutes

The meeting was called to order at 10:02A.M.

Deb Cooper read a very special letter of appreciation from the Masonic Temple to our SBSQC.

Martha Scott gave the Treasurer's report as to the changes that have been made to the accounts with a total of $36,976.69 as of the end of April, 2018. The Money Market account has $21,934.62, and is now earning interest of 1.04%.

Barbara McArthur gave the Vice President's report. Kamp-Sew-Alot remains full with no drop outs. It was suggested that anyone on the wait list would have the first option to sign up for the Fall Kamp-Sew-Alot scheduled for October 22-24. Barb also announced that the St. Andrews retreat now has enough people to fulfill the requirement.

Committee chairs made several announcements:

Pepai Whipple announced that they now have enough people for the demonstrations at Kamp- Sew-A lot.

Judy Ramos reminded us about the Quilt Challenge for the quilt show. She urged us to participate with the quilt to be at least 100 inches square, created using the title from any book which we may have read. Her black wig made us all laugh.

Mary Ann Clayton told us that the raffle quilt ticket sales are going well. She urged all of us to purchase some of the tickets and to sign up for the various venues to make sales.

Sandy Foster reminded us of the Sue Sew Day which is scheduled for next week. Pizza and salad will be available for purchase at $5.00 each.

Janet Green announced that Art Quilt Sues would be meeting at Karen's Quilt Shop today after the meeting today.

Ingrid Engmyr and Helga Barton from the Sunshine committee had several gifts and prizes to award to the winning members.

There were many gorgeous Show and Tell Quilts displayed for all of us to enjoy. Wow, what a talented group of members!

Carol Clevenger gave 3 beautiful large hand pieced quilt tops to community quilts to be quilted. Irene Snodgrass volunteered to quilt one of them for Community Quilts. Thanks to both Carol and Irene.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:50A.M.

Respectfully submitted,
Murph Gerber, Secretary
